MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

EID AL-FITR

Eid Mubarak!

I send my best wishes to Muslims across Australia as you once again gather to celebrate the festival of Eid al-Fitr.

After the sacrifices made during the holy month of Ramadan, Eid al-Fitr is a time of renewal and joy for Muslims.

Feasting, exchanging gifts and sharing in a communal celebration, Eid is a time for young and old to enjoy the sense of belonging, camaraderie and fellowship that comes from family, faith and community.

Having curtailed or cancelled so many of your celebrations in 2020 and 2021, this year's celebrations should be even more joyful.

Last year at Eid, I said we could see rays of dawn and there would be again be days of joy ahead.

This year, we welcome that joy.

A joy expressed through the beautiful traditions of Eid — through your prayers and rituals — finding time to reflect on peace, gratitude, compassion and good will. This is the joy of community that you will share again this Eid.

May the festival of Eid al-Fitr in 2022 be a season of joy for Muslims everywhere.
